What is STRIBILD?

STRIBILD is a prescription medicine used to treat HIV-1 in adults who have never taken HIV-1 medicines before. It combines 4 medicines into 1 pill to be taken once a day with food. STRIBILD is a complete single-tablet regimen and should not be used with other HIV-1 medicines.

STRIBILD does not cure HIV-1 infection or AIDS. To control HIV-1 infection and decrease HIV-related illnesses you must keep taking STRIBILD. Ask your healthcare provider if you have questions about how to reduce the risk of passing HIV-1 to others. Always practice safer sex and use condoms to lower the chance of sexual contact with body fluids. Never reuse or share needles or other items that have body fluids on them.

IMPORTANT SAFETY INFORMATION

What is the most important information I should know about STRIBILD?

STRIBILD can cause serious side effects:

- Build-up of an acid in your blood (lactic acidosis), which is a serious medical emergency. Symptoms of lactic acidosis include feeling very weak or tired, unusual (not normal) muscle pain, trouble breathing, stomach pain with nausea or vomiting, feeling cold especially in your arms and legs, feeling dizzy or lightheaded, and/or a fast or irregular heartbeat.
- Serious liver problems. The liver may become large (hepatomegaly) and fatty (steatosis). Symptoms of liver problems include your skin or the white part of your eyes turns yellow (jaundice), dark "tea-colored" urine, light-colored bowel movements (stools), loss of appetite for several days or longer, nausea, and/or stomach pain.
- You may be more likely to get lactic acidosis or serious liver problems if you are female, very overweight (obese), or have been taking STRIBILD for a long time. In some cases, these serious conditions have led to death. Call your healthcare provider right away if you have any symptoms of these conditions.

- Worsening of hepatitis B (HBV) infection. If you also have HBV and stop taking STRIBILD, your hepatitis may suddenly get worse. Do not stop taking STRIBILD without first talking to your healthcare provider, as they will need to monitor your health. STRIBILD is not approved for the treatment of HBV.

Who should not take STRIBILD?

Do not take STRIBILD if you:

- Take a medicine that contains: alfuzosin, dihydroergotamine, ergotamine, methylergonovine, cisapride, lovastatin, simvastatin, pimozide, sildenafil when used for lung problems (Revatio®), triazolam, oral midazolam, rifampin or the herb St. John's wort.
- For a list of brand names for these medicines, please see the Brief Summary on the following pages.
- Take any other medicines to treat HIV-1 infection, or the medicine adefovir (Hepsera®).

What are the other possible side effects of STRIBILD?

Serious side effects of STRIBILD may also include:

- New or worse kidney problems, including kidney failure. Your healthcare provider should do regular blood and urine tests to check your kidneys before and during treatment with STRIBILD. If you develop kidney problems, your healthcare provider may tell you to stop taking STRIBILD.
- Bone problems, including bone pain or bones getting soft or thin, which may lead to fractures. Your healthcare provider may do tests to check your bones.
- Changes in body fat can happen in people taking HIV-1 medicines.
- Changes in your immune system. Your immune system may get stronger and begin to fight infections. Tell your healthcare provider if you have any new symptoms after you start taking STRIBILD.

The most common side effects of STRIBILD include nausea and diarrhea. Tell your healthcare provider if you have any side effects that bother you or don't go away.

What should I tell my healthcare provider before taking STRIBILD?

- All your health problems. Be sure to tell your healthcare provider if you have or had any kidney, bone, or liver problems, including hepatitis virus infection.
  - All the medicines you take, including prescription and nonprescription medicines, vitamins, and herbal supplements. STRIBILD may affect the way other medicines work, and other medicines may affect how STRIBILD works. Keep a list of all your medicines and show it to your healthcare provider and pharmacist. Do not start any new medicines while taking STRIBILD without first talking with your healthcare provider.
  - If you take hormone-based birth control (pills, patches, rings, shots, etc.).
  - If you take antacids. Take antacids at least 2 hours before or after you take STRIBILD.
  - If you are pregnant or plan to become pregnant. It is not known if STRIBILD can harm your unborn baby. Tell your healthcare provider if you become pregnant while taking STRIBILD.
  - If you are breastfeeding (nursing) or plan to breastfeed. Do not breastfeed. HIV-1 can be passed to the baby in breast milk. Also, some medicines in STRIBILD can pass into breast milk, and it is not known if this can harm the baby.
- You are encouraged to report negative side effects of prescription drugs to the FDA. Visit www.fda.gov/medwatch, or call 1-800-FDA-1088.

Information, including Patient Information.

What is STRIBILD?

- STRIBILD is a prescription medicine used to treat HIV-1 in adults who have never taken HIV-1 medicines before. STRIBILD is a complete regimen and should not be used with other HIV-1 medicines.
- STRIBILD does not cure HIV-1 or AIDS. You must stay on continuous HIV-1 therapy to control HIV-1 infection and decrease HIV-related illnesses.
- Ask your healthcare provider about how to prevent passing HIV-1 to others. Do not share or reuse needles, injection equipment, or personal items that can have blood or body fluids on them. Do not have sex without protection. Always practice safer sex by using a latex or polyurethane condom to lower the chance of sexual contact with semen, vaginal secretions, or blood.

What is the most important information I should know about STRIBILD?

STRIBILD can cause serious side effects, including:

1. Build-up of lactic acid in your blood (lactic acidosis). Lactic acidosis can happen in some people who take STRIBILD or similar (nucleoside analogs) medicines. Lactic acidosis is a serious medical emergency that can lead to death. Lactic acidosis can be hard to identify early, because the symptoms could seem like symptoms of other health problems. Call your healthcare provider right away if you get any of the following symptoms which could be signs of lactic acidosis:

- feel very weak or tired
- have unusual (not normal) muscle pain
- have trouble breathing
- have stomach pain with nausea or vomiting
- feel cold, especially in your arms and legs

- feel dizzy or lightheaded
- have a fast or irregular heartbeat

2. Severe liver problems. Severe liver problems can happen in people who take STRIBILD. In some cases, these liver problems can lead to death. Your liver may become large (hepatomegaly) and you may develop fat in your liver (steatosis). Call your healthcare provider right away if you get any of the following symptoms of liver problems:

- your skin or the white part of your eyes turns yellow (jaundice)
- dark "tea-colored" urine
- light-colored bowel movements (stools)
- loss of appetite for several days or longer
- nausea
- stomach pain

You may be more likely to get lactic acidosis or severe liver problems if you are female, very overweight (obese), or have been taking STRIBILD for a long time.

3. Worsening of Hepatitis B infection. If you have hepatitis B virus (HBV) infection and take STRIBILD, your HBV may get worse (flare-up) if you stop taking STRIBILD. A "flare-up" is when your HBV infection suddenly returns in a worse way than before.

- Do not run out of STRIBILD. Refill your prescription or talk to your healthcare provider before your STRIBILD is all gone
- Do not stop taking STRIBILD without first talking to your healthcare provider
- If you stop taking STRIBILD, your healthcare provider will need to check your health often and do blood tests regularly for several months to check your HBV infection. Tell your healthcare provider about any new or unusual symptoms you may have after you stop taking STRIBILD

Who should not take STRIBILD?

Do not take STRIBILD if you also take a medicine that contains:

- adefovir (Hepsera®)
- alfuzosin hydrochloride (Uroxatral®)
- cisapride (Propulsid®, Propulsid Quicksolv®)
- ergot-containing medicines, including:

- lovastatin (Advicor®, Altoprev®, Mevacor®)
- oral midazolam
- pimozone (Orap®)
- rifampin (Rifadin®, Rifamate®, Rifater®, Rimactane®)
- sildenafil (Revatio®), when used for treating lung problems
- simvastatin (Simcor®, Vytorin®, Zocor®)
- triazolam (Halcion®)
- the herb St. John's wort

Do not take STRIBILD if you also take any other HIV-1 medicines, including:

- Other medicines that contain tenofovir (Atripla®, Complera®, Viread®, Truvada®)
- Other medicines that contain emtricitabine, lamivudine, or ritonavir (Combivir®, Emtriva®, Epivir® or Epivir-HBV®, Epzicom®, Kaletra®, Norvir®, Trizivir®)

STRIBILD is not for use in people who are less than 18 years old.

What are the possible side effects of STRIBILD?

STRIBILD may cause the following serious side effects:

- See "What is the most important information I should know about STRIBILD?"
- New or worse kidney problems, including kidney failure. Your healthcare provider should do blood and urine tests to check your kidneys before you start and while you are taking STRIBILD. Your healthcare provider may tell you to stop taking STRIBILD if you develop new or worse kidney problems.
- Bone problems can happen in some people who take STRIBILD. Bone problems include bone pain, softening or thinning (which may lead to fractures). Your healthcare provider may need to do tests to check your bones.
- Changes in body fat can happen in people who take HIV-1 medicine. These changes may include increased amount of fat in the upper back and neck ("buffalo hump"), breast, and around the middle of your body (trunk). Loss of fat from the legs, arms and face may also happen. The exact cause and long-term health effects of these conditions are not known.

- Changes in your immune system (Immune Reconstitution Syndrome) can happen when you start taking HIV-1 medicines. Your immune system may get stronger and begin to fight infections that have been hidden in your body for a long time. Tell your healthcare provider right away if you start having any new symptoms after starting your HIV-1 medicine.

The most common side effects of STRIBILD include:

- Nausea
- Diarrhea

Tell your healthcare provider if you have any side effect that bothers you or that does not go away.

- These are not all the possible side effects of STRIBILD. For more information, ask your healthcare provider.
- Call your healthcare provider for medical advice about side effects. You may report side effects to FDA at 1-800-FDA-1088.

What should I tell my healthcare provider before taking STRIBILD?

Tell your healthcare provider about all your medical conditions, including:

- If you have or had any kidney, bone, or liver problems, including hepatitis B infection
- If you are pregnant or plan to become pregnant. It is not known if STRIBILD can harm your unborn baby. Tell your healthcare provider if you become pregnant while taking STRIBILD.
  - There is a pregnancy registry for women who take antiviral medicines during pregnancy. The purpose of this registry is to collect information about the health of you and your baby. Talk with your healthcare provider about how you can take part in this registry.
- If you are breastfeeding (nursing) or plan to breastfeed. Do not breastfeed if you take STRIBILD.
  - You should not breastfeed if you have HIV-1 because of the risk of passing HIV-1 to your baby.
  - Two of the medicines in STRIBILD can pass to your baby in your breast milk. It is not known if the other medicines in STRIBILD can pass into your breast milk.

- Talk with your healthcare provider about the best way to feed your baby.

Tell your healthcare provider about all the medicines you take, including prescription and nonprescription medicines, vitamins, and herbal supplements:

- STRIBILD may affect the way other medicines work, and other medicines may affect how STRIBILD works.

- Be sure to tell your healthcare provider if you take any of the following medicines:

- Hormone-based birth control (pills, patches, rings, shots, etc)
- Antacid medicines that contains aluminum, magnesium hydroxide, or calcium carbonate. Take antacids at least 2 hours before or after you take STRIBILD
- Medicines to treat depression, organ transplant rejection, or high blood pressure
- amiodarone (Cordarone®, Pacerone®)
- atorvastatin (Lipitor®, Caduet®)
- bepridil hydrochloric (Vascor®, Bepadin®)
- bosentan (Tracleer®)
- buspirone
- carbamazepine (Carbatrol®, Eptol®, Equetro®, Tegreto®)
- clarithromycin (Biaxin®, Prevpac®)
- clonazepam (Klonopin®)
- clorazepate (Gen-xene®, Tranxene®)
- colchicine (Colcrys®)
- medicines that contain dexamethasone
- diazepam (Valium®)
- digoxin (Lanoxin®)
- disopyramide (Norpace®)
- estazolam
- ethosuximide (Zarontin®)
- flecainide (Tambocor®)
- flurazepam
- fluticasone (Flovent®, Flonase®, Flovent® Diskus, Flovent® HFA, Veramyst®)

THE GAY HANGOVER

by: Brad Loekle

The first time I'd seen the movie "The Hangover" I thought it was brilliant but also totally implausible. Not even any of the crazy stuff that happened after they accidentally roofied themselves, but just the fact that you'd accidentally roofie yourself. Now I'm not bragging or complaining, but I've been doing drugs of one form or another for a little over 20 years. I had young parents who didn't raise me with a "Christian" fear of anything so drugs were not a rebellion for me; they were just something fun to do with friends. And in all that time never once did any of the drugs I bought turn out to be "roofied". Until Martin Luther King Jr. Day 2014.

I was in Las Vegas with a gaggle of my friends in the porn and "adult" industries. We were there for the Las Vegas Hustlaball. Hustlaball's happen all over the world and they're a filthy good time. I was looking forward to a long weekend of drinking, drugs, friends, laughing and seeing A LOT of live sex acts. So ya know, my normal week. The first night of Hustlaball had gone off beautifully. For me, when I go to one of these large, gay, circuit party, sex show sort of things it's more of a high school reunion. I can't tell you how many times I've passed someone getting fisted, someone getting DP'ed or a rope bound twink hanging from the ceiling being whipped to hear one of them say "Hey Brad! How are you?! Hold on, when I'm done here let's grab a drink and catch up". My night-life is every gay boys dream and every Republican's nightmare.

By the morning of the second night, I realized most of our group was running frightfully low on... well.. Shall we say "Columbian Jumping Powder"? Yes that will do. And one of my best friends in the adult world would be coming in from L.A. that afternoon. With a quick text I told him to bring enough to fortify the troops and we were all set. We had an amazing meal with about 20 assorted porn stars, hookers, DJ's, etc to kick off the biggest night of the ball. Afterwards, we retired to one of the suites to prep for the big night. This of course included everyone agreeing that we should do two giant lines of coke each to "settle the meal" and kick the night off right. The one Asian female porn star with us mentioned how she'd always dreamed of having coke done off her ass in Vegas. As ya do. So we thought, hell, it's Hustlaball: it's a place where dreams come true! Just so you know, chopping out lines on an Asian's ass is damn near impossible.

But it isn't daddy's first time at the rodeo, so I managed. Within 90 seconds 8 assorted porn stars, hookers and comedians did 2 GIANT lines of coke each. We hit the iPod and waited for the drip! One of the girls said, "Wow, this coke is kind of trippy. It's almost like we did nitrous and coke?!" And I thought, it does! Then she looked me straight in the eyes (as they crossed) and said, "fuck Brad, this isn't coke?! This is K!!!!!!!"

For those who don't know: K or Ketimine is an animal tranquilizer used by vets. It has the polar opposite effect of coke and is MUCH stronger. What we had just all done in K is more K than you should do in an entire WEEKEND of partying.

Holy fuck, holy fuck, we just roofied ourselves. We just roofied ourselves in our own hotel suite in Vegas. We were about to fall down the rabbit hole for the next two hours. Within minutes, I had what was normally an aggressive black top curled around my leg in the fetal position asking me if the world was real, the girl who'd first noticed we'd been destroyed took a rubber unicorn head mask out of her purse and put it on and began walking into the walls, the friend who'd brought it (and totally thought it was cocaine) tried to drink a bottle of water and almost drowned himself and somehow I managed to stay standing the whole time but did, at one point, hump an ottoman. But the crowning moment was this: The Asian girl whose ass we'd used as a coffee table couldn't handle her animal tranquilizer... also she was 50 pounds lighter than the skinniest bitch in the room. So she ran into the bathroom to puke her brains out. She puked so hard that... wait for it.... She puked out her two front teeth! They were a bridge from a few years back and I guess she didn't even notice when it was happening!

Within a 2 hours we came out of the K hole, got a toothless Asian porn star a car to take her back to her hotel, and then we all rallied and went to see more live sex acts at the Hustlaball! And I learned two valuable things that weekend. First, the movie "The Hangover" is based on a totally legitimate scenario. And second, if you ever think you've been fucked up before... unless you're puked your two front teeth out, YA HAVEN'T!

ZACHARY MOSES : MAN ABOUT TOWN

Ever since I moved to Key West, my family bitches about me having moved so far away from them. They bitch and bitch, that is until polar winds come down and ruin their Januaries and Februaries. As soon as it gets nipple-shatteringly cold up north, I receive the yearly onslaught of freeloading visitors.

This month I expect to receive a minimum of nine visitors.... I love visitors!... but nine??? OMG. My sister in law was the first one of the bunch. We rented her a bike from "The Bike Shop," located at 1110 Truman Ave. The rental was super inexpensive and riding around town was way better than trying to park her cumbersome rental car. In fact, seeing our town by bike is the only way to enjoy the ambience that is Key West. If you try to drive and park, you may hate your vacation.

We rode all over the island, visiting beaches, landmarks, and silly Duval St. Shops. We then broke for lunch at Luigi's Secret Recipes located at 521 Fleming. They make an absolutely fantastic grilled Panini. They also have an amazing set of picture windows to watch the fellow tourists walk by, trying to make sense of the Key West maps, turning them this way and that. Yes, the island really is that small. Yes, we really have that few roads. Those maps are accurate.

After lunch we made a Mid-day visit to the Sculpture Key West exhibit at the West Martello Botanical Garden (free entrance! donations are welcome) located at Higgs Beach. For more information about the Sculpture Key West exhibit visit <http://sculpturekeywest.org>. There were some pretty amazing pieces of art this year... my favorite was the creepy crocheted shadow people. I challenge you to find them.

Since it was such a sunny beautiful day, we decided to stay at Higgs Beach (easily the most lively beach in town) till dusk. The next day my sister-in-law was as red and peeling as a Gumbo Limbo Tree (aka: tourist tree). You can find these beautiful trees in the landscaping all over the island.

We decided to eat dinner at Salute, the restaurant located right on the beach, and enjoyed a curried MahiMahi special. Salute really excels at their specials! Always ask what the special of the day is, you won't regret it.

Our guest wanted to go out for some Key West nightlife, but I was just recovering from my last hangover and wasn't feeling like another evening drinking with the rowdy crowd. I suggested the alcohol alternative of my home state of Utah. LATE NIGHT COFFEE! Key West finally has a late night coffee shop: Duetto Pizza and Gelato located at 540 Greene St. They have the best espresso in town, and they're open during bar hours. Plus, Seriously? Pizza, coffee, cookies and gelato... together at last! Duetto is a new game in town, let's keep them busy, so they can keep us awake even later... Woohoo! Now that the caffeine has kicked in, let's go dancing!

Gay SPRING BREAK

Key West

Are you ready to relax on one of the quirkiest tropical islands in the world? Do you want to soak up the sun and explore an island with international reputation for its laid-back attitude? Do you want to explore reefs, shop at unique stores, enjoy great eateries, watch breathtaking sunsets, party through the night at clubs that know how to heat up the night? Then you're ready for Spring Break in Gay Key West. This is the kind of spring break that you can remember with a grin and wish you had never left. This is a place where you can be yourself and feel welcome, safe and free to let loose.

THIS IS GAY KEY WEST!

Throughout the week enjoy sunning yourself at one of our beautiful beaches on the island. Smather's Beach, located on South Roosevelt Blvd, offers a long white sandy beach. With your watersport activities available and beach volleyball, this is the beach to gather with your friends and enjoy the sun. There are many watersports to enjoy while visiting Gay Key West. Fury's Ultimate Adventure gives you the opportunity to parasail, snorkel the reef, jet ski and kayak. Sunset Watersports offers a live calypso music sunset cruise aboard the world famous "Party Cat". Or looking for an intimate sunset cruise, jump aboard Danger Charters Wind & Wine Sunset Cruise. If you are looking to spend the day on the water with just the boys, Blu Q offers ALL-Male (clothing optional) snorkel & kayak trips. Need a private charter, contact Venus Charters for dolphin watching, snorkeling or fishing trips.

While you're here, be sure to enjoy the museums and attractions on the island. The Key West Aquarium featuring marine life indigenous to the Florida Keys with guided tours and shark feedings. Another must-see is the Mel Fisher Maritime Museum, with 4 great exhibits: Florida 5000 - 1622 Treasure Exhibit, Henrietta Marie – slave ship, African Cemetery – Higgs Beach Exploration, and Harry Potter's World – Renaissance Science, Magic & Lore. You can't say you've seen EVERYTHING without a visit to Ripley's Believe it or Not!, with over 500 unusual and weird items, including a shrunken head that was owned by Ernest Hemingway. You'll be amazed, astounded, and most of all, entertained. Next, climb the 88 stairs at the Key West Lighthouse Museum & Keepers Quarters for an awe inspiring view of the island. Be sure to experience the Key West Butterfly & Nature Conservatory and walk among hundreds of living butterflies and colorful birds in a relaxing and tranquil.

Gay Key West also offers fabulous shopping at our unique shops. Towels of Key West, 806 Duval Street, the longest running retail store on Duval. American Boy, 806 Duval Street, offers unique apparel, designed & produced in Key West. Blue Boutique, 718 Caroline, offers both men & women island fashions. Evolution Key West, 701 Duval, home of the "monkey". While shopping make sure you take a break and savor some delicious dishes from our world renowned restaurants. The Schooner Warf Bar & Grill with it's beautiful view is a great place to listen to live music daily. Salute's gives you the best beach view during lunch. Deuce's "Off the Hook", always has great vegan dishes and for the meat lover's, Flaming Buoy Filet Co. has great seafood and steaks. And you can't miss enjoying a classic dinner at Hard Rock Café Key West! Satisfying that sweet tooth is easy with Key Plaza Creperie, Better Than Sex, Kilwin's or Flamingo's Crossing Ice Cream.

Just some of our fabulous Gay Key West opportunities. For more information, visit Gay Key West Visitors Center, 513 Truman Avenue or gaykeywestfl.com. Key West Business Guild welcomes you to Gay Spring Break Key West, visit our website www.gayspringbreakkeywest.com.

“Confessions of a Wild Child”

by Jackie Collins

c.2014, St. Martin's Press

$26.99

294 pages

Oh, the things you got away with when you were a teen!

Cutting classes and hanging out in the school parking lot. Sneaking out of the house when your parents thought you were asleep, parties when they weren't home, “borrowing” their car, busting curfew, stupid stuff you hope your kids never do.

You got away with a lot. It's a good thing your mother never knew.

Then again, as you'll see in “Confessions of a Wild Child” by Jackie Collins, she probably did the same things when she was a kid.

Almost-fifteen-year-old Lucky Santangelo was tired of being in prison.

Ever since her mother was murdered ten years prior, Lucky's father, Gino, kept Lucky and her brother, Dario, locked in their posh Bel Air mansion. They weren't allowed to go anywhere unchaperoned, though Lucky was good at sneaking out. Outwitting Gino was fun - until the day he informed her that she was being shipped to a "very expensive" boarding school in Switzerland.

As it turned out, it wasn't the worst thing that ever happened. Eager to find out about boys and sex, Lucky and her boarding school roommate escaped every night, biked into town, drank, and played a game Lucky called "Almost." It was a fun, empowering game in which she "almost" lost her virginity to several local boys. Kicked out of the Swiss school for "Almost," Lucky was sent to a different school in Connecticut but she didn't stay long: her former roomie, a Greek heiress named Olivia, invited Lucky to the south of France. It was easy to get there. It was even easier to forget to tell Gino where she was.

Caught once again, Lucky was dragged to Las Vegas, where Gino told her that he'd figured out how to tame her. As much as she wanted to walk in her father's footsteps and go into business, Lucky wasn't destined to run the Santangelo Empire. No, that would be Dario's future. For Lucky, marriage and babies were inevitable.

And Gino Santangelo believed that was that.

But if he thought he had a wild child before, he hadn't seen anything yet...

Every once in awhile, I get in the mood for a good trashy novel and, really, you can't beat a book by author Jackie Collins. You can't. Still, there are bumps and bruises inside "Confessions of a Wild Child."

It's often hard, first of all, for an adult to write in the voice of a young teenager, and the first few pages of this book reflect it: Lucky sounds like a middle-aged woman. That bump passes quickly, but occasionally returns; there are also light continuity errors in here, and some preening repetition. Turn up the heat, though, and you've got a story that has its flaws but is, overall, a delightfully guilty pleasure.

Though Lucky is a teenager in this book, this is an escapist-novel for adults. If you're looking, in fact, for something to take on that mid-winter vacation, "Confessions of a Wild Child" is a great book to get away with.

Ask Nana

E-mail your questions to nana@keywestgayrag.com

Dear Nana,

I have a terrible fear of the dentist. I haven't been in probably 10 years and I need to. Do you have any advice for how to conquer my dental fears and do the right thing for my teeth?

Ten years?! You know this second teeth you got when you were 8 years old is the last set you're getting right? Listen, no one loves the dentist. That's probably why their profession has a high suicide rate. But in the end, unless you want to end up like me and have to put your teeth in the dishwasher every night, you have to go! But here are some things that might make it a little easier. First, find a hot dentist. If someone one's going to shove their fist in my mouth and cause me pain (without a safe word) I want to at least be able to have a sexual fantasy about it. Second, make sure the hot doctor has loose ethics. And by that, I mean find one that is willing to drug you heavily and without question. I had a great dentist for years that used to give you laughing gas for a cleaning! I wonder whatever happened to him... probably jail. Third, nut up, Mary. There are plenty of things we don't like doing or are scared to do but need to anyway. Far too often in the country we put off doing anything that might make us the least bit uncomfortable, and the results of that culture are all around us. 900 pound people, hoarders, 50 year old men who still act and dress like their 16, etc etc. Doing things that are hard, painful and scary is what makes us better, stronger and more evolved. Besides, I find it hard to believe you're that scared of a little tiny tooth drill when you shove dicks up your ass for fun.

Dear Nana,

My friends and I don't know how to tell one of our best friends that we hate his new boyfriend. We don't want to pick a fight and make it about us versus him but we also don't want our friend to get hurt. Is there any right way to do this or do we just have to grin and bear it? Help!

Well this one is a bit of a doozie! There's no nice way to tell someone you love that they have crap taste in love, is there? But after what feels like 300 years on this Earth I've come to the conclusion that the only really acceptable time to confront a friend on their relationship is when they are being physically or mentally abused. In the end, though it's admirable for you to want to protect your friend from getting hurt; getting hurt is part of finding love. Pain is a part of life; just ask Two Tooth Tina from the previous letter! And listen, sometimes good people like dating dicks! I know I dated a total prick of a man in the 50's. None of my friends liked him but I, for some reason, was thoroughly turned on by his douchbaggery. It took me 4 years to get over that phase. But I did and I had to get over it on my own. So if I were you I'd just let this relationship run its course. If your friend asks you your opinion on him don't lie but also don't jump down his throat. And hey, if this guy you don't like should happen to stand too close to the stairs at the bar when you're all out on the town... ya know. All I'm saying is sometimes accidents happen. "Brakes fail, Dolores!"

*Do you have problems? Of course you do!!
Why not let Nana help you?! Send your questions to:
