Angie Baby

Out of the mothballs

In a weak moment, I concede:

It was hasty. Unwarranted. Even cruel.

To cast adrift my seven readers without explanation.

Suddenly, a self-muzzled Angie Baby had left the building, with only a wide wet ring on the dented upholstery as a reminder that I once held court there and was incontinent.

One of the devoted timidly approached me some time after and confessed that he'd trembled unaccountably for weeks and had even sought professional pain control. I immediately demanded one of his pills.

Of course, I answer to no one, get along with few and my enemies are legion. Truth be told, for the last 6 months, I was finalizing a one-woman play of my life, entitled Wig, Backwards. My high hopes were laid lower than my tits when I amassed more rejection letters than Star Jones trying to secure a new TV gig.

This unrealized masterwork was filed in the dishwasher, where I stow other important paperwork, and I sullenly embarked on a self-destructive trek through nameless ginmills.

I admit it: I became a South Florida party favor. I doubt I'll ever live down the videos widely-circulated on Internet sites. (You may have seen the one involving a kitchen whisk.) I bartered girdles for lubricant, I stopped by sperm donor banks for lunch and I somehow misplaced my mauve YUGO.

So when the prospect of THE GAY RAG arose, I was in frantic, immediate touch with the Publisher.

It was a collect call from a grim homeless mission and I ate humble pie. I would've eaten hairpie to regain my old post. I begged unashamedly, and our subsequent negotiation at the Bourbon streetside bar went something like this:

"Shall I resume my most recent endeavor, doling out stern advice to the feeble-minded?"

"God, no!" the Publisher clutched his forehead, which I noted would benefit from Botox. "I'm still sorting out the lawsuits from Ask Angie."

"Well, I could review new movies I sneak into, DVDs I swipe, illegally downloaded albums, books I half-finish."

"The last thing Duval Street needs is another critic," the Publisher dismissed me.

"What about gossip?"

"It would be outdated by the time it's published."

"Not if it's stuff I make up about locals I hate! Isn't that clever?"

He thought not. He reckoned he already had Pistol to deal with.

I began grasping at straws. The ones in everyone else's cocktail. Actually, I sipped from them, too.

"Given the name of this publication, perhaps I can discuss and debate a different feminine napkin in each issue," I countered. "I could even be photographed wearing and modeling them."

"Offensive, Angie."

I was weeping by now. Granted, I keep convenient tears on a dimmer switch, depending upon what I want, but I needed back this public outlet for my literary Tourette's.

We settled, for now, upon a GAY RAG Bartender Q/A.

Monthly, your Angie shall yodel prying questions at a bartender of my choice.

Or, the Publisher reminds me, whoever purchases the largest ad.

Toward this, I briefly offer these DOs and DON'Ts -- criteria to those already queuing up to bust the hymen of this new November column.

If you're male, DO feel free to arrive partially-dressed. This doesn't include teeth. Please wear those.

If you're of the gentler sex, behave accordingly. DON'T bring up a love of professional contact sports.

DO speak glowingly of your employer or I shall see that you're fired.

DON'T mistake this for Bachelor of The Month. I DON'T care if you love hairy forearms. Unless they're mine.

DO remain conscious.

If I magnanimously offer to pay your lunch tab, DON'T also then order a dinner to go.

and

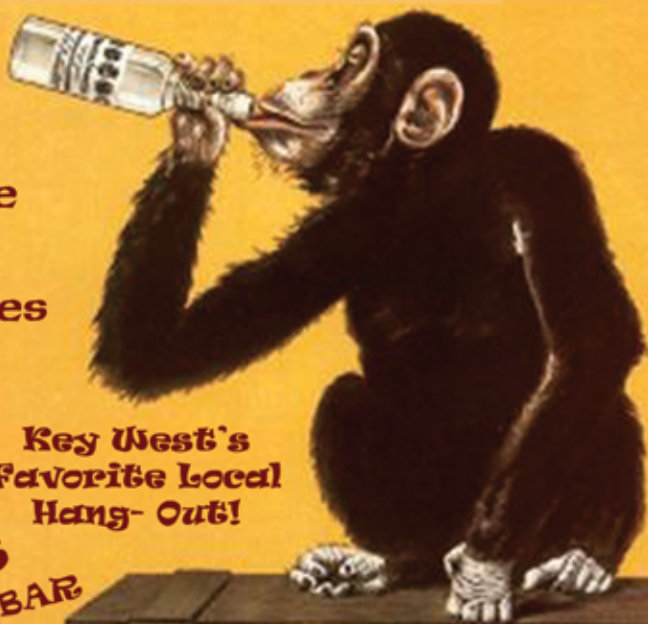

DO me.

Whore--Scopes

Aquarius

Jan 20 – Feb 18

Your inherently inquisitive nature will become a burden for the last 6 days of the month. Much sleep will be lost trying to determine whether stairs go up or down. The preceding 24 days will be fairly uneventful.

Pisces

Feb 19 – Mar 20

Now that WomenFest has passed in Key West, the sign of the lesbian is now wondering what to do with herself over the next 11 1/2 months. For a large part of the next 4 weeks, you will refine your talents regarding upper lip hair-plucking, & probably buy some new Birkenstocks.

Aries

Mar 21 – Apr 19

Your illiteracy remains a problem this month. You need to face reality and come to terms with the fact that you will never get the full effect of alphabet soup.

Taurus

Apr 20 – May 20

Always the rebel, aren't you?? At some point in the middle of this month, you will break loose the bonds of acceptable behavior and use the women's rest room in a gay bar. Come to think of it, why would a gay bar have a women's rest room in the first place?

Gemini

May 21 – Jun 20

You are worried about getting older. Don't. It happens to us all. Think about the positives. You no longer need to try to hold in your tummy... There is nothing left to learn the hard way... Your supply of brain cells is finally down to a manageable level.

Cancer

Jun 21 – Jul 22

Be careful Cancer. It is socially acceptable for you to talk to God... We call that prayer. Caution is advisable when telling people that God talks back to you. That will land you in the loony bin.

Leo

Jul 23 – Aug 22

Your drinking is becoming a problem. I hear that after your flight into Key West, you asked your companion if it was a black man who was flying the plane. Honey, get it together... The in-flight movie was Driving Miss Daisy.

Virgo

Aug 23 – Sep 22

You need to concentrate on being less of a bitchy queen. If you continue your present behavior, you are only going to drive people away from you. With all of your recent hair-pulling and slapping, you could easily be confused as a member of the Women Prison Dance Company.

Libra

Sep 23 – Oct 22

Face it Libra, we all know that you think that you are a superhero, but for the love of God, stop wearing your spandex underwear over your clothes!! You look like you are carrying around two cats fighting in a pillowcase.

Scorpio

Oct 23 – Nov 21

Your continued poor hygiene remains an obstacle to any long-term love interests. At this point, even the 65 year old at the Bourbon Street Pub pool with no teeth & hair growing out of his ears would probably consider you a step down.

Sagittarius

Nov 22 – Dec 21

Wealth is not in your chart for the coming month. For that matter, it's not in your cards at all. The word around town is that your parents were so poor that they only got married for the rice.

Capricorn

Dec 22 – Jan 19

Love is ahead of you this month. Looking for tall, dark and handsome? He's looking for you, & will be all over you like a Jehovah's Witness with an Amway franchise... I'm jealous.
